"How Does A Song Grow?"

Get ready to rock, bop and zinghop with Nashville's #1 Kids Entertainer - and EMMY Award winning children's songwriter - Conductor Jack. He began his career as a preschool teacher, and co-created "The Zinghoppers Show" - a television program with his wife Kitty that is now airing on over 100 PBS member stations nationwide. Jack is offering an interactive songwriting workshop where your kids get the opportunity to write their very own original song! Jack is the only children's performer on the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum's songwriter roster, is the only children's entertainer to ever be invited to play the legendary Bluebird Cafe in Nashville, and won the 2011 EMMY Award for "Best Original Song". This fun, engaging workshop is great for all kids - as Jack will motivate, engage and empower your young patron's creativity, help lead brainstorm sessions and cultivate an atmosphere for kids to grow their own song! Teens love asking Jack what it's like being a professional touring musician and Q&A's can be very fun...especially once they learn that Jack has worked with Justin Bieber, Mindless Behavior and other Radio Disney superstars!
