Vaudeville on the Diamond: Minor League Baseball in Today's Entertainment World

Attendance at a minor league baseball game provides more than the players and their sport. On and off the field, baseball fans are entertained by quirky events like the dizzy bat competition, mascot races, Star Wars theme nights, and even monkeys riding border collies. These multifaceted forms of entertainment transcend the game itself and harken back to the vaudeville shows of yesteryear. This presentation explores the fun and wacky ways minor league baseball continues to grow its audience in an era of sophisticated sports and entertainment options. Presented by David Sutera

Following the meal we will hear from Phil Dixon about his book:

John “Buck” O’Neil—The Rookie-The Man—The Legacy 1938

We have copies of the book you may check and a read before the event. Come join us as we learn about and discuss his book. You are welcome to come for the whole evening starting with David Sutera, dinner and the book discussion with Phil Dixon. Even if you haven't read the book and you are interested in the Negro Baseball League, plan to join us and learn more

PLEASE JOIN US FOR THIS EVENT!
